INVITATION

NATIVE AMERICAN FISH & WILDLIFE SOCIETY
NORTHEAST REGIONAL MEETING HELD
NOVEMBER 9 & 10, 2009
PORTLAND, MAINE

The Native American Fish & Wildlife Society (Society) is a national nonprofit organization dedicated to the preservation and management of the natural and environmental resources of Indian Country. Through our membership, consisting of over 250+ member tribes, professional resource managers, and individuals, the Society strives to provide respective regional conferences, as well as an annual national conference in an effort to share current technical information and issues of common concern.

You are cordially invited to attend this year's Regional conference and join with us in discussing and addressing issues pertinent to tribal natural resource management. The Society will host its Regional conference in Portland, Maine. Please forward this invitation to others who may be interested in attending the conference and becoming a member of the Society.

The meeting will be held at the Holiday Inn Portland West, located at 81 Riverside St., Portland, ME, 04101. The Holiday Inn Portland is holding a block of rooms under the heading "NAFWS". This year's registration fee is $50 for Society members and $75 for non-members (registration includes a one year membership). To reserve a room, each participant should contact the Holiday Inn Portland no later than October 23, 2009, at (207) 774-5601 for in-house reservations. The room rate is $79/night plus 7% tax. For tax exemption, please give your tax-exempt number at the time of the reservation.
