Trail of Tears

April 2, 2005

On Saturday April 2, 2005, Rich-Heape Films, Inc. came to Littleton, Maine to film some winter scenes for their upcoming documentary "Trail of Tears". This documentary tells the story of the forced relocation of the Cherokee people from their home in North Carolina to Oklahoma in 1838-1839. This is the first time the story of the Trail of Tears will be told from the Cherokee perspective. People from the HBMI Community and beyond came out that day to take part in the filming of this epic story. We'll keep you updated on the release of this important film.
